Dear Mr. Wells:

Confirming our telephone conversation we are pleased to enclose copies of our drawing C1406 and letter of transmittal to Mr. Coy Jackson, Lockhart Lumber Company, regarding installation of automatic firing equipment at his plant.

As you will see from the drawing, the firing system is divided into two parts, that is, one utilizing bark and other heavy refuse in our standard CD type stoker; the other consists of two Roto Valve even feed systems to be operated primarily with dry, planer mill refuse from the dust house. It is our thinking that, since these two types of fuel are so different, the best method of firing would be to separate the operations and handle each type of fuel separately. All boilers would be equipped with the tangential furnace and electric eye smoke detectors.

Should you have any questions regarding this, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Very truly yours
